Druid's Dreaming 2009

We recently were informed that the Oval in Mount Barker where we had planned to hold Druid's Dreaming was due for scheduled grounds maintenance at the end of the football season. This would not have been an issue however they are completely resurfacing the oval and it will be unavailable until mid December.

Oh dear me I hear you say. Well the Universe works in mysterious ways and in our search for a new location we found paradise. A small patch of wilderness bordering onto a conservation park. A wildlife haven just 25 minutes from the city of Adelaide.

The new venue for Druid's Dreaming is Adelaide Hills' Wilderness Lodge in Mylor, South Australia. Just 10 minutes drive from the original venue but a private and natural setting that promotes a feeling of peace and being at one with nature.

The link for the place is <http://adelaidewilderness.com.au> but do not contact them for bookings. At this stage all bookings are through our website via secure payment or in person by arrangement with Administration.

For ticket prices, which will not change, go to the Druid's Dreaming 2009 website at <http://druids-dreaming.net.au> or for more information call 0401 972 302 or 0458 811 574.

So far we have Wendy Rule, Damh the Bard, Burn'Collect, White Rhino, RavenWolf, Joom, Witch Mob, Jamie McPherson, Rob McDade as confirmed with lots more in the wings. We have some great businesses involved that will be holding stalls and some interesting workshops lined up. More details closer to the date.

For those travelling from further afield there is some affordable accomodation nearby and for groups we have very reasonable package deals available.

So get in contact with us if you have any questions but we look forward to seeing you all at Druid's Dreaming 2009.

So come along for a great day out. Just remember we are now going to be in Mylor!

We are excited!

Cosmic Blessings
